CALCULATED TO DEPRESS BUSINESS,

Borne Up Against by the People of the United States, Sustained by a Sublime Faith in the Future of Their Country

New York, May 5.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade issued today says:

It is now as it has been for nearly a year the most gloomy of times in the history of the United States since 1873. The business of the country is in a state of depression, and the people are suffering from the effects of the depression. The business of the country is in a state of depression, and the people are suffering from the effects of the depression. Ladies, when you are down town this evening call at the Great Eastern Tea Co., 143 South Main street. The attractions are better than a band concert.

VOTE TO QUIT WORK.

Out of Sympathy for Strikers the Decatur Miners Will Take a Rest.

Result of the Meeting Held at the Dougherty Hall—Secretary Murray in the City.

When the Republicans went to press yesterday the Decatur miners were in the midst of their deliberations at the Dougherty Hall on the proposition to quit work out of sympathy for striking miners through out the country. Thomas Getting was the chairman of the meeting and Edward Malloy secretary. The secret vote on the question shows that at least 250 miners were present. The result on the question: "Shall we stop work?" was 143 in the affirmative, 87 in the negative, and then the motion to quit work carried by a unanimous vote. This committee was appointed to notify the Armstrongs of the coal company as to the result of the meeting; Frank McCune, M. Moriarty, Ralph Pull, Con Kelly and John Carpenter. The committee waited upon Mr. Armstrong and told him that the miners had decided to quit work until the demands of their brother miners elsewhere had gained their point.

WILL MEET AGAIN.

J. W. Murray, vice president of the Illinois Division of the United Mine Workers' organization, which is at the head of the tie-up, arrived in the city last night on route for Pana. He remained over to-day, and was present at the adjourned meeting of Decatur miners this morning at the hall. There was a large attendance and all outsiders were strictly excluded. They conducted themselves in a very peaceable manner. The meeting was very brief, and little or no business was transacted. It is understood that they adjourned to meet Monday morning pending the arrival of another official from Springfield.

It is generally understood that the local miners are opposed to union organization. Still they may unite with the Mine Workers and elect local officers. That matter will doubtless be definitely settled at the meeting to be held Monday or Tuesday.

STRIKE IS LIMITED.

The tie up at the two shafts catches the mills and many of the manufacturing establishments with a limited supply of coal on hand, while it is quite probable that many a family has but little coal in the bin. If the idleness of the miners continues it will not take long to bring about a coal famine in Decatur. The strike is of such a character that at the present outlook there can be no shipment of coal to this or any other city where coal is used. It will be but a short time until there will be a general shut down, and many men besides the miners will be out of work. The outlook is anything but bright. Even in summer we must have heat to get up steam, and without coal artificial ice cannot be made. But it is generally hoped and believed that the coal trouble will be of short duration, not longer than two weeks. The Decatur men will get their pay to-night. It will not take long to exhaust what they get to-day and what they have laid aside. They may have means of getting temporary help from some source. If they have not, they will soon be as bad off for something to live on as will the men in other trades who may be thrown out of employment because there is no coal to be had.

The walk-out in Decatur is purely one of sympathy for the miners in Pennsylvania and at certain points in the west, where it is claimed that the wages paid are not just. The Decatur miners have no grievance. They receive 52c to 56c a ton for mining coal, which is better pay than is received at Springfield, Pana, Taylorville or Lincoln.

The business world cannot do without fuel any more than the miners can do without food, clothing and a place to sleep. In the nature of things the tie up cannot last very much longer. The sooner the trouble and differences are settled the better it will be for everybody concerned.

The combination of interests are of such magnitude and are so far reaching in their influences that it seems that only a season of experience, however tough it may be, will bring about concessions which will lead to the continuation of profitable enterprises, and the employment of labor at fair remuneration.

Surprise Party.

A surprise party was given Miss Mattie Bennett at her home on West King street last evening. Those present were Misses Ibie Funk, Florence Bennett, Hattie McCrory, Mina Bennett, Clara Bennett, Emma Bean, Eva Logan, Nellie Fife, Mrs. Jno. Bennett, and Messrs. Geo. McCrory, Charles Steinbaugh, Forest Fife and C. M. Goltz. Refreshments and social games were the order of the evening, and those present report a very pleasant time.

Whitmore Primary.

The Republicans of Whitmore township will hold their primary election, Friday, May 11, at 3 o'clock p. m., at the town hall in Orono.

Challenged by L. A. G. Shoaff.

L. A. G. Shoaff, of Paris, on May 4th, challenged Geo. McLaughlin, of Terre Haute, winner of the ballkline billiard tourney for a contest at billiards next week at Terre Haute.

THE GREAT RELAY.

The August Washington-Denver Ride to be a Grand One.

A. F. Wilson, the local counsel for this district, League of American Wheelmen, is daily receiving communications regarding the great Washington-Denver relay ride. A letter was received this morning from Maro R. Thompson, manager of the relay ride for the Illinois Division, in which he appoints Mr. Wilson the manager of this district, which will comprise the road from Decatur to Illinois. The arrangements are that the Danville men, under Bert Custer, will deliver the message to the Decatur riders at Bement, while Fogarty, of Springfield, will have men ready to take it on from Illinois.

It is the greatest relay ride ever attempted and is to take Washington, D. C., for a starting point and Denver, Colorado, as their destination, then for the wheelmen to carry a message from President Cleveland to the national president of the L. A. W. in Denver and to have it there in time for the national meet which occurs in Denver on the 13th of August. It is not known yet when the men will start from Washington, but a rough estimate has been made that they will have to travel 2000 miles and it is thought that the wheelmen can make twelve miles an hour on an average. The western wheelmen are very enthusiastic about the contemplated trip and will receive the bearers of the message cordially. The fleetest wheelmen are being picked out for the work and pressed into the service.

W. W. Kyle for Superintendent.

Elsewhere in this paper will be found the announcement of W. W. Kyle, of Warrensburg, for county superintendent of schools, subject to the action of the Republican county convention. Mr. Kyle is a first class citizen and enjoys the confidence of all who know him. He has resided in the county for 17 years and during all that time has been identified with the school work of the county. He has been a hard worker and is one of the originators and promoters of the plan for grading the country schools. He has been a teacher for 18 years and has been principal of the Natick, Harris-town, Maroa and Warrensburg schools. He was a candidate for the same place he now seeks eight years ago, and had the support of a majority of the delegates from the country townships. Mr. Kyle asks the coming convention to consider his claims. If nominated he will be elected.

Extravagance

May lie in paying too much for a thing. If you pay less for Ice Cream than we ask you get an inferior quality. That is poor economy. If you pay more you pay too much. For we sell the best there is.

ON HIS OWN RESOURCES.

Gen. Kelly Must Now Look Out for His Army Without Assistance.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 5.—Gen. Kelly is now upon his own resources, but he does not appear to be discouraged.
On the contrary, he looked particularly bright and contented yesterday afternoon. The executive council had a meeting and decided that they had no authority to use public money to help out the Kelly army in any way.

Gov. Jackson closed his efforts to secure reduced rates over some railroad for the industrial, and Private Secretary Richards informed Chairman Lowry of the decisions of the governor and the council. Chairman Lowry called his committee together and a tearful consultation was held. It was decided to close up the headquarters
this morning, and Gen. Weaver and J.
R. Sovereign were detailed to carry the news to Kelly at the camp.

Gen. Kelly witnessed a ball game in the afternoon between his team and the High school nine, in which the students were victorious.

Soon after the general had pocketed his share of the gate receipts, which were not large enough to materially enrich him, he received information of what had been done in his case by the authorities. He expressed himself as satisfied to accept the situation and the belief that the people of Des Moines will treat the army with greater liberality, now that their contributions are to be made direct.

Gen. Kelly said that the army would be allowed to decide whether to take up the march here or wait for a train.
He rather favored waiting.

Asked if the men would march if ordered to do so, he replied:
"Eight hundred of them will go where I go, on foot or any other way.
I cannot reach for the other 600."

The men generally declare that they do not want to walk, and some say they will not. The building they are in suits them and they are not afraid of starving.

It looks as if the army will go to pieces right here, the men dropping out in squads and beating their way through the country. Gen. Kelly is a good manager of men, but to keep this army waiting for a train which their good sense tells them can never come, with the food supply continually running short, would require su-perhuman skill.

GEN. RANDALL'S ARMY

Receive a hearty welcome at Hobart, Ind.—Arrival of a Saloonkeeper.

HOBART, Ind., May 5.—Gen. Randall's Commonweal army reached this town yesterday afternoon, and went into camp at Melin's brickyard, on the banks of the Deep river. The general preceded the aggregation, accompanyed by an orderly, arriving at 8:30 yesterday morning. He was met by an old friend, Dr. Allen, a dentist, to whose residence the commander was taken. Dr. Allen is a sympathizer with the Commonweal movement, and gave the Commonweal leader a good breakfast. The people of the town collected 800, 500 loaves of bread, 500 pounds of meat, and a bountiful supply of coffee, which was held in readiness for the army.

At 2 o'clock the rank and file marched into town, and after pitching camp pickets were established.

Subsequent to an hour's wait the commissary doled out the rations provided. The afternoon was spent in a quiet manner many of the men bathing and fishing. The men are housed in the tile sheds and are safe from the effects of inclement weather.

Last night Gen. Randall addressed an audience of 600 from the steps of the Hobart house. To-day, about 9 o'clock, the march will be resumed to Plint lake.

A committee of citizens from Calparquiso came to Hobart yesterday afternoon and presented the ultimatum of that town, which was next on the line of march. The army will reach La Porte next Tuesday.

Jeff Trievess, a saloonkeeper, was arrested last night while attempting to sell liquor to the members inside the city limits. Trievess resisted arrest, and drew a revolver, but was promptly knocked down and taken to jail, bail being denied.

Outwitted by an Engineer.

TACOMA, Wash., May 5.—The Coxey-ites who boarded the Northern Pacific train Thursday night were outwitted by the engineer who sidetracked the train at Palmer in the mountains and took the engine back to South Prairie.
No freight trains were sent out yesterday. Yesterday afternoon forty of the men boarded the local east-bound passenger train at the station, but offered no resistance when deputy marshals drove them out.

The Triple Alliance a Pacific Compact.

ROME, May 5.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday Premier Crispi, in replying to the attacks made by the radicals upon the triple alliance, vigorously defended that compact on the ground that its purposes and effect were absolutely pacific. He declared that a war between Italy and France would virtually be a civil war, and that such a conflict would be madness.
The foreign policy of the government, as outlined in the budget, was then approved by the chamber.

RIOT AT SCOTSDALE.

A Bloody Battle at the Painter Coke Works

BETWEEN DEPUTIES AND STRIKERS

Two of the Defendants Probably Fatally Injured, and at Least a Score of the Rioters Shot Down with Winchester.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., May 5.—A riot at the Painter works, near Scottdale, resulted in the wounding of ten strikers and serious injury to Supt. White and E. B. Roddy, the bookkeeper of the company. White and Roddy were terribly beaten by the mob and both may die.

The plant started up at 3 o'clock with about one-half of the complement of men. Two hours later the strikers began to assemble near the works. Some of the men became frightened and went home, but most of them remained.

About 6 o'clock a committee was sent into the mine to request the men to come out, and upon their refusal, the mob, headed by a score or more of women, attacked the plant.

Roddy, assisted by a dozen deputies, stood guard, and when the mob came up with a rush, White fired point blank into their ranks. A Hungarian woman fell with a bullet in her thigh. Madened by this, the mob, which numbered a couple of hundred, closed in on the deputies, who, driven into close quarters, and blinded by the shower of missiles, were unable to use their Winchester.

After emptying their revolvers, they fled and the mob surrounded White and Roddy. A burly Hungarian attacked the latter with a hatchet, felling him to the ground and was about to deal the deathblow when James Tarr knocked the Hungarian down with a club. White was dragged into the engine house to escape the fury of the strikers. By this time the deputies rallied and three volleys were fired in quick succession, forcing the mob to retreat over the hill in utter rout.

A number of strikers were carried from the battlefield, and it is believed they were killed. Dr. W. H. Cole, the company physician, states that fifteen strikers went down in the three charges. These men and one woman were carried off the ground after the first charge, and when the mob finally retreated they bore away at least ten more. Three of them were left near the works. One of them was shot through the thigh, another through both legs, and the third had a bad wound in the groin.

The affair has caused the most intense excitement here. It is feared the foreigners will avenge the death of their countrymen and that this is but the beginning of riots in all parts of the region. It would not be a surprise to the people here should the strikers resort to the use of dynamite to blow up the works.

Supt. White was taken to the Connellsville hospital, and it is thought he will not survive. Ewing Roddy was brought to this city and cared for. The foreigners were carried to the adjoining houses and cared for by Drs. Rogers and Fetters. Sheriff Richards of Fayette county is upon the scene of the battle with forty men armed with Winchester, and has already arrested four persons charged with being implicated in the riot.

The Casualties Not so Numerous as Thought—Further Trouble Feared.

SCOTSDALE, Pa., May 5.—Sanford White, the deputy sheriff who was so badly beaten during the riot at Painter's, is at his home in Connellsville, and it is thought he is fatally injured. E. B. Roddy, the bookkeeper, is not as seriously injured as was at first supposed, and will be able to leave his home in a day or two. It appears now that only three of the rioters were shot, two of them being arrested.

The operators are still determined to start their works and the strikers are as determined to prevent them if possible. The district officials have received no reply from the operators to whom they sent letters inviting them to meet this morning at 10 o'clock, and the indications are that there will be no conference.

The operators now claim that twenty-four of the plants made idle by the strikers will be started, but the labor leaders claim that the strike remains practically solid from Fair Chance to Mount Pleasant. Those who have returned to work are nearly all English-speaking men, and this fact further enrages the foreign element, who are determined to remain out to the end. Late last night it was reported that Blaine's men at Moyer had decided to quit work. There will likely be trouble at this and other plants to-day.

AN ALARMING SITUATION.

Striking Cokers Assembling East Upon Mischief—The Excitement Intense.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., May 4.—The situation is very alarming in this section of the coke region tonight. Mobs are assembling in the Vanderbilt region and at the Moyer plant, preparing for an attack to-morrow morning. The formidable display of deputies in those sections last night frightened the strikers, and they concluded to wait a more favorable opportunity. To-night they sounded the tocsin for the reassembling of the mob, and the strikers are gathered at the points agreed upon. The companies have armed a large force of men, and are fully prepared to repel the attack.

The Dunbar Furnace Co. will attempt to fire up Hill Farm plant to-morrow morning. Their stock of coke is exhausted and the works must be fired up or the furnace banked. A large force of armed men will go to the works at midnight. The workmen will go to work at 3 o'clock in the morning but no trouble is expected before 5 or 6 o'clock.

The Dunbar strikers have been the most determined in resisting the attempts of the operators, and are sure to make an attack if Hill Farm is fired up.

The Painter riot has stirred up the foreign elements. The Hungarians and Slavs are maddened at the slaughter of their countrymen and have become bloodthirsty. They have resolved upon revenge. One of the leaders admitted this evening that the most bloody scenes of the strike are yet to come. The excitement is almost as intense as that which followed upon the death of Paddock.

A CRITICAL SITUATION.

The Miners Along the Mesaba Range Only Kapt from Violence by Presence of Troops.

VIRGINIA, Minn., May 4.—The situation is still critical along the Mesaba range, but the miners have kept themselves in the background to-day in the face of state troops and St. Louis county deputies. The one exciting event of the day was the departure of thirty miners, armed with rifles and shotguns, for Mountain Iron, for the purpose of preventing the opening of the mines there. A telegram from that point to-night says they were successful in this.

A company of state militia will go to that point to-morrow morning.

The men at the Olive mine and Drake & Stratton's went to work under protection this morning, and have not been molested. The strikers are ugly and are restless and nervous. They are mostly Finlanders and a desperate set. If they start a fight it will be a bloody one. Sheriff Sharvey has telegraphed Duluth for fifty more deputies.

The miners have threatened to blow up the militia with dynamite during the night, but Capt. Bidwell has out such a strong picket line that it will be impossible for the strikers to reach the main body of the men.

The Franklin mine men say they will organize as soon as the troops leave and shut down all the Mesaba region mines again unless their demand for $1.50 a day is granted.

Do Not Want to Strike.

BIBBING, Minn., May 4.—There is no strike in this locality. There was some talk of the Virginia strikers coming over here to force the Canton miners to quit, but they have not appeared. Although the wages are small the Canton miners do not want to strike.

Trouble Expected.

MOUNTAIN IRON, Minn., May 4.—It is quiet here to-night but trouble is expected to-morrow unless Sheriff Sharvey and Adjt.-Gen. Muehlberg hurry forward their troops and deputies.

KENTUCKY'S SHAME.

A Warm Welcome Extended to Congressman Breckinridge

UPON HIS ARRIVAL AT LEXINGTON.

The Women of the City, However, Issue a Protest Against His Renomination, in the Interest of Peace and Progress.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 5.—Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge arrived here on the 6:10 Chesapeake & Ohio train last evening. A large crowd met him. The greater number of them were his supporters. His son, Desha, was the first man to shake hands with him as he alighted from the train. His admirers then crowded around him so rapidly that his progress was stopped, and he had to shake hands with at least 300 stalwart Kentuckians. Mr. Breckinridge said he was feeling unusually well, but that Mrs. Breckinridge had remained in Washington on account of a slight indisposition.

"I will speak here to-morrow afternoon," said he, "and at Paris next Monday. I have no further plans. I will consult several of my friends here to-night and we may decide on something additional. Yes, I am well pleased with the warm reception I received here this evening. That is all I can say to-night."

The women of Lexington will be out this morning with the following: "To the Voters of the Democratic Party."

The women of Lexington and Ashland district protest against the renomination of W. C. P. Breckinridge for congress. As you are the voters, we trust you will refuse to return him as your representative. By doing so you will best observe the peace and progress of home society, which from every quarter calls for this right and holy action.

FIFTY-THIRD CONGRESS.

(First Session.)

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—For about two and a half hours to-day there was nothing to be heard in the senate chamber save the monotonous droning out of columns upon columns of figures collected by Senator Quay in illustration of some propositions in his speech against the pending tariff bill—varied occasionally by some remarks of his own, or by extracts from newspapers or magazine articles on the subject of the sugar trust. These were rehearsed in the hearing of a dozen senators—some of them by Mr. Quay himself, and the rest by Mr. Gallinger, who acted as his assistant reader. As Senator Squire thought that there should be more senators present to hear these interesting readings, there was a call of the senate, which resulted in gathering a quorum and over from the coat room and committee rooms. But, at this point the democratic seemed to think that they had enough of tariff debate for the day and so motion to proceed to executive business was made and agreed to.

Earlier in the proceedings, the amendments in relation to the income tax which had been agreed upon in the democratic conference on Thursday were presented and laid on the table. The senate at 5:50 adjourned till to-morrow.

By steadily pursuing consideration of the river and harbor appropriation bill for the year ending June 30, 1895, soon the beginning of today's session until an hour or more after the usual hour of adjournment, the house finally disposed of the measure and started it on its way to the senate.

A number of changes were made in the hours of appropriation having been agreed to by the committee, but all other proposed amendments making increased appropriations, save one, was defeated. That was offered by Mr. Ellis, and increased from $10,000 to $105,000 the appropriation for improving Lock No. 2, in Green river, Kentucky.

Representative Stone filed the views of four members of the minority of the committee on the judiciary as to the status of section 40, Revised Statutes, requiring the deduction of members' pay for the time they are absent except on account of illness.

Mr. Ray, not agreeing with the majority or minority, was given leave to present his views Monday.

An evening session was held for consideration of private pension and relief bills, at the conclusion of which the house adjourned until Monday.

BLOODSHED AT A CHARIVARI.

Desperate Fight Between Guests and Outsiders at a Wedding.

NORTHFIELD, Minn., May 4.—Report comes from Lester to-night, twelve miles southwest of here, of a battle between forty masked men who repaired to the home of Fred Hilder, a well-to-do and respectable German farmer who was married a few days ago, and attempted to charivari them. Some thirty guests were seated at a banquet at 10 o'clock when the leader demanded $100 to buy beer for the crowd. The demand was refused, and five dollars offered instead. The door was closed in the speaker's face, and a few minutes later the gang returned, smashed in the door, and a fight ensued, in which guns were used. Three unknown men of the gang were shot and seen to fall, whether dead or not no one knows, as they were hastily carried away. The masks were torn from the leaders, and arrests are being made.

A Big Claim.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., May 4.—A claimant for property in the East End, amounting to $500,000 in value, is in this city. He is Alexander Campbell, of Muskegon, Mich. He claims that his father, Charles Campbell, and his brothers, John, Edward and Robert preempted the land in what is now the townsite of Superior, in 1847. He says his father and uncle, removed to Southern Minnesota in 1850, and all are dead now. He has one living relative, a sister in Detroit, who sent him here to investigate. He will prosecute the claim.

The Imprisoned Tourists.

GRATZ, May 5.—The effort to save the tourists imprisoned in the Lugloch cave was continued all day yesterday. One diver worked in the torrent at the cave's mouth for 150 minutes, during which time he was twice dragged out unconscious. When he abandoned the task he said that it was absolutely impossible to dislodge the wreckage. He was confident that he heard knocking inside the cave. Friends of the tourists are said to have appealed to the emperor to send competent engineers to Lugloch.

The familiar "Alvin Joslin" country comedy was given at the Grand last night by the C. L. Davis company, with Davis as the star. The support was good throughout. Harry C. Stanley personated the English lawyer in fine style, and Mrs. Stanley was very clever as Ella. She is perfectly at home on the stage, and although she has been before the footlights less than a year, she has demonstrated that she has a natural talent as an actress. Harry J. Maxwell, brother of Mrs. Stanley, is also a member of the Davis company.

HAS HE GONE?

A Coxyite in Decatur to Organize an Army.

At ten o'clock last night the story was on the streets to the effect that one Colonel O'Mara had arrived in Decatur from Springfield for the purpose of organizing a branch of the Coxy army to march on Washington. One story was that the colonel had registered at the Park hotel and that he would open an office in the city to-day.

This forenoon a REPUBLICAN reporter called at the Park hotel to interview Col. O'Mara, but there was no such person stopping at the house and the name did not appear upon the register. It is barely possible that the mysterious stranger is at some other point in the city.

While at the Park hotel the reporter learned that during last night there had been a red-hot discussion in the office on the Coxy question, which had aroused some bad feeling which is now gone. A St. Louis party had a good deal of sympathy for the Coxy movement, but he found a man of positive views and the courage to express them, who took issue with him, and consequently there was a warm time of it for awhile. One of the gentlemen, who is a personal acquaintance of Gen. Coxy, stated this morning that Coxy is but little less than a lazier. He added that the whole Coxy business is a fraud and that there is nothing in it except to give prominence to a lot of fellows who would not work if it were offered them.

"Why," he said, "if congress were to pass a law that every man out of a job should receive $1.50 a day, making the condition that every one of the men receiving the money should first take a bath, the whole gang would disperse and there would be no more armies."

The Coxy movement was discussed at the High School literary society meeting. At this writing Col. O'Mara appears to be a myth. He cannot be located. Possibly he will hang out his sign for recruits somewhere in this city in a few days.

Testimonials.

Prof. Edmondson, the optician, at the Hotel Brunswick (opposite opera house), has been doing some clever work which must count to his credit. Mr. N. A. Woodford speaking of lenses fitted to his eyes said they had opened up to him a new world of vision.

W. J. Sloth says it has been almost impossible for him to read at all for the past ten or twelve years, has tried many oculists and opticians with no success; but Prof. Edmondson now at Hotel Brunswick succeeded in making him see perfectly as any child, far or near, with one pair.

Still more wonderful is the case of Mrs. A. Rathburn, who at the age of 13 became nearly blind through sickness, and for between twenty-five and twenty-six years has been unable to read at all. Since being fitted by Prof. Edmondson she reads even fine print, and the Professor expects her eyes and vision to become perfect.

Edmondson tests all eyes free, and will close business the fore part of next week.

TOOK TOO MUCH MORPHINE.

The Life of Mrs. Jennie Hunter in Danger for a Short Time.

Last evening Mrs. Jennie Covington Hunter, who has been managing the Merchants' Hotel in the old opera house block for nearly a year for Mr. Scott, was dangerously ill for several hours, and there were wild rumors afloat that there had been an attempt at suicide by the morphine route. Mrs. Hunter had been suffering with a headache and stomach trouble which caused intense pain. She sent to her physician for morphine to give relief, and five grains were sent her with instructions to take one grain at a time. The messenger failed to give the instructions and Mrs. Hunter took the five grains at once. An hour later the chambermaid found Mrs. Hunter in a comatose state. Her condition excited alarm and Dr. Spalding was hastily summoned to the hotel. He treated the case successfully and to-day Mrs. Hunter is resting as comfortably as could be expected. She will be up and around again in a few days. She denies any purpose to take her own life, and protests that she had no reason to do violence to herself in any way.

Mrs. Hunter is 23 years of age and is a blonde with brown eyes. She has a daughter eight years of age. When she was 14 years of age and while she was attending the Catholic convent at Springfield, she married Charles C. Hunter, who is now in Chicago, connected with one of the offices of the Elevated Railroad Company. Her father is S. A. Covington, an architect, of Springfield.

Mrs. Hunter will retire from the management of the hotel on Monday, when Mr. Marterson, late of Latham, will take charge.

The Prohibitionists.

The Prohibitionists of the state have just closed their state convention at Bloomington. They have put out a full state ticket and adopted a platform which covers all the questions that are now agitating all classes of people.

The convention declared in favor of prohibition; of equal suffrage; of a tariff sufficient to yield money enough to defray the expenses of government economically administered and for a tariff commission; of the free coinage of gold and silver; of the extension of civil service; of granting pensions to union veterans on the same basis that pensions are granted Mexican war veterans; of the abolition of the canteen system in the army and the saloon system in the soldiers' home; of limiting foreign immigration; of a law restricting the ownership of lands and mines by aliens; of the suppression of trusts; of a compulsory school law; of free text books; of turning the interest earned on public funds into the public treasury; of Sunday observance and cordially invite everybody to vote the ticket. A plank was also inserted favoring the government ownership of railroads and telegraph lines. There is much in the platform for every class of men except Republicans, and Republicans will have to get along by themselves as best they can.
